DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claim 1 is provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claim 1 of copending Application No. 09/672,128. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not yet been patented.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the referenced copending application and would be covered by any patent granted on that copending application since the referenced copending application and the instant application are claiming common subject matter, as follows: a clock control logic, a first digital synchronous network, a second digital synchronous network, a third digital synchronous network and a comparison and selection logic.

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant would be prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application in the other copending application. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Migita (6,526,106).

See figures 5 and 6, and col. 7, lines 26-49, Migita discloses a system (figure 5) wherein the system comprises:

clock control logic (3A) that receives the first clock signal (CK3) and generates a second clock signal (CD1) and a third clock signal (CD2), wherein said second and third clock signals have a frequency that this an integer fraction of the first clock signal frequency, wherein the integer fraction is (1/1) (see figure 6);

a first digital synchronous network (41A) responsive to the first clock signal and an input signal (D11), and provides a first output signal (CL1);

Art Unit: 2631

a second digital synchronous network (42A) substantially identical to said first digital synchronous network, wherein said second digital synchronous network receives said second clock signal and the input signal, and provides a second output signal (CL2);

a third digital synchronous network substantially identical to said first digital synchronous network, wherein said third digital synchronous network receives said third clock signal and the input signal, and provides a third output signal (CL3); and comparison and selection logic (5, 6) responsive to said first, second and third output signals to determine if a fault has occurred in the computation of said first output signal, wherein if a fault has not occurred said comparison and selection logic provides a system output signal (CK2) indicative of said first output signal, wherein if a fault has occurred said comparison and selection logic provides said system output signal indicative of said second output signal (see figures 5 and 6).
